

Children with special needs / disabilities

We do accept children with special needs. These children will be allowed to stay if they can conform and fit in with our day to day program.

If these children however need special attention which takes up too much time for our class teachers to do their assigned duties, we will not be able to accommodate the child.

